

LOVE FOOD HATE WASTE COMPETITION

Terms and Conditions

In these terms and conditions 'the Council' means the Cassowary Coast Regional Council.

1. Information on how to enter and participate in the Love Food Hate Waste Challenge including all challenge communications and resources form part of these terms and conditions of entry. Participation in the challenge will be considered acceptance of these terms and conditions.
2. The Council (ABN 20 889 787 211) is the administrator of the Love Food Hate Waste Challenge
3. Late, partially completed or registrations that do not satisfy the registration requirements may be judged as ineligible for participation in the challenge
4. To be eligible to receive the prize, the entrant must reside in the Cassowary Coast Region.
5. All information submitted must be true and correct as at the time of registration.
6. Registrations for the challenge will open on Sunday 26 March 2023. The challenge will commence at 12.00am Monday 27 March 2023 and conclude at 11.59pm Sunday 23 April 2023.
7. The prize draw for the worm-farm and indoor composting system will take place at 12.00pm Monday 24 April 2023.
8. Participants must complete the end of challenge survey prior to the time of the prize draw to be eligible to win. The Council accepts no responsibility for inability to or failure to adequately complete the registration process to receive prizes.
9. Any prizes that form part of the challenge will be awarded to the first valid entries selected at random by the Council. The draw will be final. The prizes are not redeemable for cash and are non-transferable. No correspondence will be entered into.
10. The nominee grants the Council the right to use personal information (including participant details, social media profiles, stories, photographs and/or video) in accordance with the participant's agreement at their time of registration.
11. By providing material (including participant details, photographs and/or video) to the Council the nominee warrants they either own the material or have acquired sufficient right to use the material and agree to indemnify the Council against any loss or damages caused by breach of this warranty.
12. Where an entrant is a part of a group, the person completing the registration must be an authorised representative of the group.
13. Although every effort will be made to ensure challenge materials (including prizes) are sent to the address stated on the registration, the Council takes no responsibility for lost or misdirected items not received by participants.
14. The Council will not be responsible for any problems or technical malfunction of any network or lines, servers, providers, computer equipment, software, traffic congestion on the Internet, etc. including, but not limited to, any injury or damage to participants or any other person's computer related to or resulting from participation in or downloading any materials in this program.

15. The Council will not be responsible for any failure by sponsors and partners to fulfil their contractual obligations made between the Council and the sponsor.
16. If for any reason the challenge is unable to run as planned, including causes beyond the control of the Council, the Council may at its sole discretion cancel, suspend or modify the challenge.
17. The program may be withdrawn at any time without notice.
18. The participant agrees to indemnify the Council against any loss or damages caused by a cancellation, suspension, modification or withdrawal of the program.
19. These terms and conditions may be altered where necessary, and any changes will be notified on the program's website.
20. The Council reserves the right, at any time, to verify the validity of a registration, reject a registration or disqualify a registration that is not in accordance with these terms and conditions.
21. For further information regarding these Terms and Conditions, please contact Council and request to speak with the Communications Team on 1300 763 903 or email.
